A Grateful Dr. Harclerod Nostalgically Bids Adieu

By BILL KNOWLES

Few reporters, particularly college reporters, have a chance to witness a successful educator, grown and mature, honestly express personal gratitude to someone else in this dog-eat-dog world.

But such was the privilege of this reporter Monday afternoon as he sat across the desk from Dean of the College Fred F. Harclerod. The dean, who assumes his new post as president of Alameda State College Feb. 1, had quite a bit to say, and tears came to his eyes as he progressed:

AT RIBUTE PAID

"I want to pay tribute to my boss. I hope most people realize what a great president we have at San Jose State. Have you ever heard of a college that has a scholar, philosopher and administrator—all in one person—at its head? This is a rare, rare person.

"A person like this attracts," the dean continued. "The president interviews a high percentage of teachers who accept jobs at SJS. Our high-quality faculty is due largely to Pres. (John T.) Wahlquist's personal ability.

"And he's given me every freedom here. I gave up a job (head of the Education Division at San Diego State) in which I had expected to spend the rest of my life, to come up here and work under him. It was one of the wisest things I ever did," Dean Harclerod said.

"I would not have been appointed to this position if it weren't for his high recommendation. I shall always be grateful to him," the dean said of Pres. Wahlquist.

DR. FRED F. HARCLEROD
'... tribute to my boss'

"And now, he's going through all kinds of adjustments in mid-year simply as a result of being so kind."

Dean Harclerod revealed the "play-by-play" of his appointment.

"The assistant superintendent of state colleges and teacher instruction called me to ask about my interest in the Alameda job and to check into my own background. He said he would arrange a meeting with Dr. Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of public instruction."

MEETING HELD
After a conference with Dr. Simpson in Sacramento, it was agreed that the dean and his family should go to Riverside for the monthly State Board of Education meeting Dec. 18-19.

"Since then things have been rather hectic," the new ASC president commented.

And about as quick as he uttered those words, the phone rang. It was a friend of the dean's (who hadn't heard about his new job) calling from the University of Wisconsin, inviting Dr. Harclerod to teach at the Big Ten school's summer session.

Graciously declining, the dean modestly explained his new position to the caller, mentioning that he would have to be "on the Alameda County scene" all summer.

Dean Harclerod responded immediately to the question, "What will be the toughest part of your job?" with a question of his own:

"What is a college? It's nothing without a faculty. How can you expect to attract students without a qualified faculty? This will be by far my toughest assignment—obtaining a high-quality administration and faculty."

Wrapping up his duties at SJS before departing for the East Bay, the dean said that "this is the kind of a job which is impossible to end in order for someone else to begin anew. 'Til just have to turn over the reins to my successor."

Record-Breaking Class Prepares for Graduation In Off-Campus Pageant

Mid-Year Exercises Set Jan. 30

By JOHN CURRY

San Jose State's 1959 mid-year graduating class, 548 strong, will receive its degrees next Friday afternoon, Jan. 30, in the first mid-year commencement exercises ever held away from the SJS campus.

Traditionally, the January ceremonies have been held in the Men's Gym, but the need for more atmosphere, parking space and room for a class nearly 20 per cent larger than last year's dictated that commencement be moved to the spacious Exposition Hall.

Dr. Ralph R. Cummings, associate dean of students, in charge of the program, said he planned on a crowd of 3000 persons.

"We hope the Exposition Hall can take care of a crowd this size," he said. "I think we'll fill it up easily enough."

Degrees will be conferred by Pres. John T. Wahlquist. Candidates will be presented by Dr. Fred F. Harclerod, dean of the college. Dr. Wahlquist also will report on the college's mid-year progress.

Dr. William J. Dusel, SJS vice president, will deliver the commencement address. He will discuss "Between the Idea and the Reality." The title is an expression of despair from one of T. S. Eliot's most pessimistic poems, "The Hollow Men."

"However," Dr. Dusel said, "the address will be an optimistic appraisal of problems yet to be solved before our great American dream can become a reality, and of the powers of college-educated men and women to bring about a solution."

TO START AT 1:30

Ceremonies will start at 1:30 p.m. with a president's reception for master's degree candidates at the south end of Exposition Hall.

The procession will begin at 2:30 p.m. Dr. W. Gibson Walters, professor of music, will conduct Ushers and usherettes for commencement exercises still are needed, Robert Baron, activities adviser said yesterday. Baron called for 25 volunteers Monday, setting the sign-up deadline for Thursday noon. By late yesterday afternoon, only three prospective ushers had signed up. Volunteers may apply in Student Activities Office, Admin. 242, or call ext. 431.

Pre-Reg Date Set for Feb. 6

Finals are not yet upon us and already thoughts are turning to registration.

Students lucky enough to pre-register include band members, students employed by faculty members, the football team, and student employees of the Registrar's Office as well as Spartan Shields and Spartan Spears, who will dispense coffee and information during registration. Pre-registration will take place Feb. 6, 1-4 p.m.

Dates for general registration are Feb. 9 and 10. Graduates and seniors will be the first group to sign for courses Feb. 9. Starting time for both days is 7:30 a.m.

All limited students and matriculated students with last initial X-Z and A-H, will register from 4 to 8 p.m. Feb. 9. Nonmatriculated and all matriculated limited students who have not registered already will do so Feb. 10, 3-7 p.m.

The latter group may register with regular students, according to usual alphabetical arrangement or any stipulated registration time thereafter.

Students who wait until registration day to apply for admission or to pay delinquent fees or fines not cleared by Feb. 4 will be placed in the last group. They will register Feb. 10, 11:30 a.m.

A late $2 fee will be charged all regular students who do not pay the registration fee before 5 p.m. Feb. 10. The same fee will be charged persons who do not hand in registration cards by 5 p.m. Feb. 18.

Spartans will report for registration, equipped with pencils, pens, erasers, a schedule of classes, and $29.50 for fees and ASB card.

Materials and service fee is $22 and student body card is $7.50.

In addition to materials and service fee, non-residents will pay a tuition fee of $6 per unit or fraction of a unit, not to exceed $90.

Classes will begin Wednesday, Feb. 11, at 7:30 a.m.

Fraternity Rushing To Start Feb. 14; Registration Open

All men interested in spring fraternity rushing are urged to register in the Activities Office, Admin. 242, before semester break.

Formal rush will begin at noon, Saturday, Feb. 14, with an orientation meeting and program in Morris Dailey Auditorium. Rushing ends Feb. 23.

Approximately 150 men are expected to rush, according to Robert Baron, assistant to the dean of students. He encourages students on campus this semester to sign up before vacation or at the IFC booth during registration.

Rushing information will be sent only to new students. Others may obtain the necessary details when they register.

It's Dead Week And We're Dead

Like most students at San Jose State, Spartan Daily reporters need time to cram, that is, study, for finals. So, today's paper is the last edition until Wednesday, Feb. 11.

Staff positions already announced by next semester's editor, Bill Phillips, include: Bill Knowles, copy editor; Jim Adams, news editor; and Gayle Montgomery, wire editor.

Fraternities Write Letters; Topic: Bias

Some SJS fraternities perhaps should hold classes in letter writing. At least, two particular fraternities should.

Dick Robinson, student body president, is interested in hearing from all fraternities which restrict membership on racial or religious grounds.

He wants to know one thing—are these fraternities attempting to strike out such discriminatory clauses?

Yesterday Robinson said the response "has been good" but two fraternities have failed to answer. He said he plans to give the report to the Student Council when it meets next semester.

"Twelve letters were sent out and 10 were answered," he said. "This has been a good response and the fraternities are telling us everything we wish to know," he said.

Robinson is repeating what last year's ASB president Don Ryan did. Ryan sent letters to fraternities with such restrictions, urging them to leave membership open to all students.

The report from last year showed that most SJS fraternities were in favor of eliminating such rulings, but that many of them were unable to do so.

The problem of such rulings is hardly new at SJS, but the Greek units claim difficulty arises because many are charted by national organizations which are centered in other parts of the country.

Alaska Governor Given 50-50 Chance To Live

SEATTLE—Alaska Gov. William A. Egan was given "less than a 50 per cent chance of survival" yesterday following approximately two hours of emergency surgery.

Egan, 44, who took his oath of office only 18 days ago, was flown here Sunday from Juneau after he took a turn for the worse in his convalescence from a Jan. 3 operation.

FRIENDLY MIKOYAN DEPARTS

WASHINGTON—Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan thanked Americans for "their warm welcome and friendship" yesterday and headed for home after a 16-day goodwill tour of this country. In his departure statement, the No. 2 Soviet leader apparently sought to soften the angry controversy raised yesterday by his blunt criticism of U.S. trade policies and other cold war problems.

HAVANA, Cuba — Fidel Castro climbed out of a sick bed yesterday and went to nearby Camp Columbia, presumably to complete plans for today's monster public rally in support of Cuba's freedom revolution, the army's legal office announced.

Meanwhile, military court martials of former Batista adherents in the armed forces will get underway today in Havana's Cabana Fortress. Ten former military men will make up the first batch of "war criminals" to go on trial here.

FRONDISI ARRIVES

WASHINGTON—President Arturo Frondizi of Argentina arrived yesterday for a four-day state visit aimed at bolstering his country's economy.

Meanwhile, in Buenos Aires, the government broke the back of the outlawed general strike yesterday by invoking sweeping emergency powers that included the drafting of bus and subway workers into the army. Privately owned buses known as "collectivos" reappeared on the streets, their operators making the choice of going back to work or facing army court martial.

JORDAN HOSPITALIZED

SACRAMENTO—Frank M. Jordan, California's 70-year-old secretary of state, was hospitalized today with acute indigestion. His nurse said he was "doing nicely."

'COLD RECEPTION' FOR TAX

WASHINGTON—Speaker Sam Rayburn dashed cold water yesterday on President Eisenhower's budget proposal to boost federal gasoline taxes by 1½ cents a gallon. The Texas Democrat told reporters the plan would receive a "pretty cold reception."

Dear Thrust and Parry:

In view of the ample display of leg-above-the-knee shown by the young lady pictured on the upper left hand corner of page 32 of Lyke, it is apparent she is not wearing a slip. Had a responsible censor seen this picture before release, it would have been cut. I'm sure. This is not the type of picture to be shown to young college students. Yet if this picture isn't bad enough, the nude on the upper left hand corner of page 42 is, indeed, pornography at its worst.

By the way, what was cut out of page 13 and 14? Probably some leftover from Reed far above the comprehension of Lyke editors.

A Word of Thanks

Congratulations to the more than 500 graduating seniors of the January 1959 class. We hope they may find success upon culmination of their studies at San Jose State College.

This being our last issue for fall semester, we take the occasion to extend our thanks and gratitude to all those who helped in the production of the Spartan Daily.

To the Daily staff, a pat on the back for a job "well done." Their long hours and ardent efforts have helped to produce a newspaper, the quality of which we are proud.

To the Spartan Daily advisers, Mr. Charles V. Kappen and Mrs. Irene Epstein, thanks, for the help and support you have given us.

We also extend our feelings of gratitude to Dr. Dwight Bentel, head of the Department of Journalism and Advertising; Dick Robinson, ASB president; President John T. Wahlquist, and the members of the college administration and faculty.

The Spartan Daily, a student publication by definition and practice, is aimed at you, students and faculty, with the goal of serving your interests and those of the college.

The Daily is written and edited by students, and our purpose is to produce a newspaper of professional quality. During the past semester, we have tried to be fair in all stories, and we have not made any efforts to discriminate against any group or individual.

In short, all our efforts were aimed at giving you, the readers, the best newspaper possible.

We extend best wishes to Bill Phillips, spring Spartan Daily editor, and the members of the spring semester staff, knowing that they will continue to produce a newspaper of professional quality.

Name Adds Prestige

Most of us never have heard of Valdosta or Fort Valley State Colleges, located in Georgia.

Likewise, it's doubtful if many Georgians are familiar with Humboldt, Chico—or even San Jose—state colleges here.

But reverse the picture and label the schools Georgia State at Valdosta, California State at San Jose, etc., and immediately most persons visualize a school the caliber of Michigan State or Ohio State.

From Valdosta and Humboldt to Michigan State with the simple insertion of a few letters.

Obviously, it's not quite that simple. A mere title doesn't build a school's reputation. It takes the combined efforts of administration, faculty, students and alumni to place a college in the "big time" class.

But name association doesn't hurt any. Few people would argue that the name "San Jose State College" carries more prestige than would "California State at San Jose."

University of California students aren't graduated from Berkeley, Los Angeles or Santa Barbara Universities. They're handed diplomas from the University of California at Berkeley, Los Angeles or Santa Barbara.

Why then shouldn't state colleges be recognized in the same manner? Although San Jose is a California state college, it's not named as such.

Only California State Polytechnic College, of the 10 public colleges now in operation, use the state's name. It would be hard to imagine Cal Poly being called "San Luis Obispo State."

Thirty-three states label their public colleges after the state's name. Of the 11 Western states, eight title colleges after their own name, Washington State, Oregon State, and Arizona State Colleges at Tempe and Flagstaff, to name a few.

Nevada, Wyoming and California are the non-conformers.

Whether changing this institution's name from San Jose State College to California State College at San Jose would be worth the effort is anyone's guess. But it's interesting and certainly worth thinking about.—GCS.

DEFINITE SITE

The dean said he and his family would pull up stakes in San Jose as soon as the State Board of Public Works selects the definite site of Alameda State.

(Latest speculations are Hayward or San Leandro.)

As the dean continued to accept congratulatory calls from his friends on campus and elsewhere, he mused: "I didn't know how many friends I really had."

He had many. Because while at SJS he was the type of a man for example: you weren't afraid to call at 4:55 p.m. or thereabouts, when you had a late story break about the state college system. Dean Harcleroad was always ready and willing to tell the Spartan Daily what it wanted to know.

"I tried to teach the kids," he said. "I'm grateful for them and their interest in the college."

And we at the Spartan Daily are grateful too. We know perhaps more than any organization on campus outside the administration what a capable man is.

As for his new job, it's clear the dean had no qualms about accepting it. He stated phatically:

"It's what I've always wanted."

'Jolly Roger' Choice 'Flabbergasts' Author

By NAN BARATINI

A 29-year-old Navy veteran who never had written a play before in his life now is putting the finishing touches on his script for the 1959 Revelries production.

"I was flabbergasted," was Bill Leak's reply when asked his reaction to the surprise Revelries Board decision to use his script, "Jolly Roger."

Leak, a senior physics major, was in competition with Phill Up-ton and his script, "Right Be-fore My Eyes."

"Jolly Roger," according to the author, "is a musical comedy constructed around a modern-day smuggling ring operating off the coast of Africa. It took the two weeks of Christmas vacation for the first writing," Leak added.

"I just saw in the Spartan Daily that they needed a script so I thought I'd write one," Leak commented, when asked how his manuscript came into being.

The author, who hoped his script would be accepted but "never expected it," said casting for Revelries will begin in the middle of February.

Revelries is to be presented May 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7 in Morris-Dailey Auditorium. Leak will be production manager of his show.

"I've never had a bit of experience in working with the theater," Leak revealed. "But everyone on the (Revelries) board has been given me all possible assistance."

Nancy Hall, freshman English major, is helping Leak on the musical score of "Jolly Roger." The author reported the songs will come later, after the final draft of the script has been completed.

Besides working 40 hours a week as a trouble-shooter in Ames Laboratory wind tunnel and being a full-time, above average student at SJS, Leak is the father of three children. His wife, Georgia, typed the "Jolly Roger" script.

Leak plans to go into scientific research after he is graduated in June. "Writing is only a hobby with me. As long as I don't have to make money at it, I can enjoy it," Leak quipped.

The author has been an SJS

'Talk' To Discuss Heyerdahl's Book On Easter Island

Thor Heyerdahl's best seller "Aku-Aku, The Secret of Easter Island" will be the subject of today's Book Talk at 12:30 p.m. in rooms A and B of the Spartan Cafeteria. Dr. Dudley T. Moorhead, dean of the division of humanities and arts, is the scheduled discussion leader.

Heyerdahl is best known for his Kon-Tiki raft expedition to the Pacific eight years ago.

The book is about his return to Easter Island to solve the mysteries of the giant stone statues. In short, the book is a modern scientific detective story which finally reveals the closely guarded secrets of the natives and their ancestors.

The series will be continued during Spring semester, according to Dr. Ezekiel Bogosian, chairman of the Library subcommittee which sponsors the discussions.

College Schedules First Observance Of Founders Day

First annual observance of Founders Day will take place May 5 in the Inner Quad. President Clark Kerr, University of California, will be speaker.

An academic procession will precede the address by President Kerr. Classes will be dismissed at 10:30 a.m. so students may attend the ceremonies.

Actual founding date of San Jose State was May 2. However, a committee decided to hold founding day programs on the first Tuesday of May to avoid conflicts with weekends and holidays, according to Lowell C. Pratt, publications manager.

The ceremony is a sequel to the centennial celebration that SJS held in May 1957. No ceremony was held last year because of conflicts in dates, Pratt said.

Varsity Mat Tilts On Tap

Undefeated, the SJS varsity matmen will place their present position in jeopardy during the semester break.

Slated bouts for the Spartans will be San Francisco State and University of Cal. The S.F. Gators invade the Spartan stronghold Feb. 6 at 7:30 p.m. in Spartan gym. SJS will host Cal Feb. 11.

Seating facilities will be made available in the wrestling gym for both bouts, stated Coach Hugh Mumby.

Mumby's grapplers have captured three team victories thus far this season. The latest conquest for the blue and gold were the Stanford matmen.

The Spartan mat contingent will be facing a hungry San Francisco mat crew. The Gators have yet to post a victory over the Spartans. The last time the two teams met was in 1956 when a strong San Jose crew posted a solid victory over the Bay City grapplers.

FT. BARRY, Calif. — The first Nike-Hercules guided missile site in Northern California became operational yesterday in the first of six conversions slated for Nike-Ajax units in the Bay Area.

The Hercules, with a range in excess of 75 miles, is the new member of the army's Nike missile family. With its capability for carrying either conventional or nuclear warheads, the Hercules is rated many times more effective than the earlier Ajax.

The Ft. Barry site is located in Marin County, just across the Golden Gate bridge from San Francisco.

Destroyers Take NL Pin Crown

Rice Destroyers took three points from the Strikers yesterday afternoon to win undisputed possession of the National League bowling crown. The Aces Up last week won the American League title.

The Destroyers bombed a 1646 series to the Strikers' 1554 to sweep the set. George Fujimoto (352), Roy Yamada (351) and Kaz Kitagawa (341) paced the Destroyer attack. Yamada struck for individual high game, 191.

Fred Perry paced the Striker attack with a 331 series and Bill Chalkley shot a 185 for high game.

The Red Oxs, by virtue of a 2-1 win over Mole's Gang, finished in second place in the final AL standings. Bob Grist (335), Bill Harvey (333), and Bud Brasher (332) all helped to pave the margin of victory. Harvey's 191 was the Ox's top score.

Dick Imperiale's 362 series and 202 individual count proved the decider in the first game as the Gang rolled up a 858 series.

AMERICAN LEAGUE
Aces Up tuned up for its playoff game match with NL winner, Rice Destroyers, by breezing to a 3-0 shutout against Sans. Tomio Uchiyama's 340 series and 181 game were high for both teams. The AU five rang up a 839 count in the second game to boast a 1562 series. They will meet the Destroyers in a playoff game after finals.

George Dudley paced the Sans attack with a 324 series and a 168 pin count in the initial game.

The Seven Tens ended the first half in second place by dropping the Air Force ROTC yesterday, 1443-1355, to pick up a three-point win. The Seven Tens were paced by Gary Brown who shot the second highest individual game in AL league play, 209. His 336 series was high for both teams. Rich pitched a 331 series to lead the Tens' victory.

John Szczesny, AFROTC, a 201 game and 312 series. Stone had high series for the ers with a 315.

In the other NL encounter Kotoniks shutout Alpha Eta Sigma to knock the latters into the basement. Koki Segara rolled a for the Kotoniks and Jim M. 301 for the losers.

IS STUDYING NECESSARY?

Once there were three roommates and their names were Walter, Pellucid, Casimir, and LeRoy. They were all happy, friendly, outgoing types and they all smoked Philip Morris Cigarettes as you would expect from such a gregarious trio, for Philip Morris is the very essence of sociability, the very spirit of amity, the very soul of concord, with its tobacco so mild and true, its packs so soft and flip-top, its length so regular or long size. You will find when you smoke Philip Morris that the birds sing for you and no man's hand is raised against you.

Each night after dinner Walter and Casimir and LeRoy went to their room and studied English lit. For three hours they sat in sombre silence and pored over their books and then, squinty and spent, they toppled onto their pallets and sobbed themselves to sleep.

This joyless situation obtained all through September and October. Then one November night they were all simultaneously struck by a marvelous idea. "We are all studying the same thing," they cried. "Why, then, should each of us study for three hours? Why not each study for one hour? It is true we will only learn one-third as much that way, but it does not matter because there are three of us and next January before the exams, we can get together and pool our knowledge!"

Oh, what rapture then fell on Walter and Casimir and LeRoy! They flung their beanies into the air and danced a schottische and lit thirty or forty Philip Morris and ran out to pursue the pleasure which had so long, so bitterly, been missing from their lives.

Alas, they found instead a series of grisly misfortunes. Walter, alas, went searching for love and was soon going steady with a coed named Invieta Breadstuff, a handsome lass, but, alas, hopelessly addicted to bowling. Each night she bowled five hundred lines, some nights a thousand. Poor Walter's thumb was a shambles and his purse was empty, but Invieta just kept on bowling and in the end, alas, she left Walter for a pin-setter, which was a terrible thing to do to Walter, especially in this case, because the pin-setter was automatic.

Walter, of course, was far too distraught to study his English lit, but he took some comfort from the fact that his roommates were studying and they would help him before the exams. But Walter, alas, was wrong. His roommates, Casimir and LeRoy, were nature lovers and they used their free time to go for long tramps in the woods. One November night, alas, they were treed by two bears, Casimir by a brown bear and LeRoy by a Kodiak, and they were kept in the trees until mid-January when winter set in and the brown bear and the Kodiak went away to hibernate.

Gymnasts Test Indian Squad

Spartan gymnasts tumble into Stanford's tent at 7:30 tonight for their second dual meet of the season.

In its home opener Friday, SJS was outpointed by California. The Bears picked up five first places to the Spartans' three.

However, SJS Coach Bill Gustafson looks for a closer contest with the Indians. Last year the two schools split a pair of meets.

Agile Ted Bogios, who placed first in tumbling and trampoline against the Bears, will be a strong contender in those two events against Stanford.

Bogios will receive strong competition from ace Spartan trampolinists Bob Haywood and C. K. Johnson. Haywood took first in the State Championships while Johnson finished among the top ten trampolinists in the nation.

Bob Davis, leading all-around Spartan scorer in the Bear meet, along with Jon Hazen, will be counted on by Gustafson to provide strong performances.

The next home gym meet will be on February 12 when the Spartans play host to Brigham Young University.

Each day in the U.S., 110 barns catch fire.

The Gladiator

by LOU LUCIA

During the semester we have accumulated an ever-growing list of questions and thus, with a smile that would put the Mona Lisa to shame, we will attempt to answer them.

Dear Sir: Would you consider Art Johnson's SJS football brochure to be the best in the U.S.?

Answer: No. The issue of Lyke was kicked around harder, tackled more vociferously, passed about and yet scored at C-day (Censorship Day).

Dear Sir: Who is the heaviest hitter in the National League?

Answer: Orlando Cepeda with a lead bat.

Dear Sir: Whom would you consider to be the biggest boon to college basketball?

Answer: Oscar Robertson's refereeing.

Dear Sir: Who is the heavy-weight champion?

Answer: Floyd Whatshisname.

Dear Sir: Is basketball becoming a game for freaks?

Answer: Definitely not. There are still some "good little men" at 6-5 playing.

Dear Sir: How would you improve the Washington Senators?

Answer: By holding another election.

Dear Sir: Do you think that Lew Burdette throws a spitball?

Answer: Only when it is raining or if his fingers are wet.

Dear Sir: Who was the fastest runner in the National League two years ago?

Answer: Ruben Gomez, after Joe Adcock charged him with bat in hand.

Dear Sir: How can the close screen in the Los Angeles Coliseum be improved?

Answer: By leaving the screen where it is and moving the Coliseum to Pasadena.

Dear Sir: How can you explain the Russian superiority in Olympic Game competition?

Answer: They have more desire. The will to live!

Dear Sir: Early in the semester someone wrote a letter saying the football players were a bunch of "snooker players." Who was he? Can I contact him?

Answer: Joe Varazzione. He can be found at Joe's Pool Hall, 99989 So. 14th St.

Dear Sir: What do you think of the SJS rifle team?

Answer: I believe they would be excellent competition for the St. Mary's Gaels basketball team.

Dear Sir: I have read that college star Don Hennon's father coaches a basketball team and has his players carry 40 lb. sacks of sand on their backs to strengthen them. What is his off season employment?

Answer: He owns a cement company.

Question: What is your background in sports?

Answer: I was an Hall H'American Hopscotch player from Havana, Cuba. I received my start by interviewing Nino Valdes, who said, "me champ."

Cagers Rest, Resume During 'Break'

There is still room for 15 men to sign up for Spartacamp, according to Jerry Snyder, director. Signups are being taken in the Student Affairs Business Office, TH16. A $10 fee for the weekend must be paid at the time of registration.

TIED FOR 4TH

Ned Fitzgerald, Spartan forward, is tied for fourth spot in the scoring column among West Coast Athletic Assn. eagles.

With an average of 17.3 per game for three contests, Fitzgerald is tied with La Roy Doss of St. Mary's. San Jose State is currently in last place in the conference and St. Mary's is in first place. SJS has a record of 6-3, while the Gaels have a 3-0 slate.

Commencement Details---

Arts, gold-yellow for Sciences and Occupations and orange for Engineering.

The group will be led by faculty marshals and will sit in the center section of seats immediately in front of the president's stand.

The invocation will be given by the Rev. William B. Murdock, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, after which the SJS a cappella choir, under the direction of William J. Erlendson, professor of music, will sing "Vinea mea electa," by Poulenc; "Crucifixus," by Lotti; and "A Choral Flourish," by Vaughan Williams.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT
Dr. Wahlquist's "president's report" will be followed by Dr. Dusel's commencement address.

After presentation of the candidates, degrees will be conferred en masse by Dr. Wahlquist, with the diplomas being presented individually by the division heads at the conclusion of the ceremony.

Dean Harclerod, dean of the college, will present first the candidates who are being graduated with distinction and great distinction. The division chairman then will present their divisions, which will stand and be acknowledged. The entire class then will be presented to the president by Dean Harclerod.

When the class has been seated, Dean Harclerod will introduce Dr. James W. Brown, head of the Division of Graduate Studies, who in turn will introduce candidates for master's degrees. At this time faculty members will hood the master's candidates with the master's hood.

Four candidates who have received officer's commissions through ROTC—three Army and one Air Force, will be introduced to the president by Lt. Col. Edward S. Robbins, head of the Military Science and Tactics Department.

Dr. Lowell G. Keith, head of the Elementary Education Department, will introduce the candidates who are receiving teaching credentials.

At the conclusion of the introductions and conferrals, the audience will stand for playing of the college hymn, "Hail Spartans, Hail," by the Symphony Orchestra and the benediction by the Rev. Joyce W. Farr, minister of the First Methodist Church.

The orchestra will follow with Elgar's traditional recessional, "Pomp and Circumstance."

Dr. Cummings added that all division and department heads and the administrative staff will be seated on the platform. He also said he would "like to have as many faculty as possible who own their own regalia to attend and lend their prestige to the ceremony."
